Our cover this month is by Wayne Takeuchi, 21, of Los Angeles. Wayne has interpreted Gene Jaderquist's timely article, '54 Styling Predictions, in a manner that leads us to predict a brilliant future for this young artist, who is studying Industrial Design at Los Angeles Art Center School. He is currently in his sixth semester under a scholarship from one of the larger automobile manufacturers. (Don't miss the report on the Art Center $11,000 design contest on page 56 of this issue.)
