A custom original by the incomparable Pinin Farina . . . created especially for the one man in a thousand who demands the finest in sports cars. For here is the exquisite new 1953 Nash-Healey.

With bodies styled and hand-crafted by Pinin Farina—the world's foremost designer of custom cars—the Nash-Healey is presented in two distinctive models. In the new Nash-Healey Convertible, both grace and verve are personified in the classic lines of the most beautiful of all open sports cars.

And the Nash-Healey Le Mans Hardtop—first place trophy winner in the 1953 Italian International Concourse d'Elegance—is a superb combination of convertible flair and sedan elegance.

For One Man

To deliver blazing performance combined with amazing fuel economy in these two great cars, Nash Motors proudly presents its Le Mans Dual Jetfire Engine—which has set the finest record of any American engine in four years of competition in the gruelling, 24-hour Le Mans Grand Prix d'Endurance.

The new Nash-Healey—in the smart Convertible or luxurious Hardtop—awaits your personal inspection. Your Nash dealer would be pleased to arrange at your convenience a private showing.
