LE MANS HARDTOP SPORTS CAR

Italian International
 Concourse d'Elegance Trophy,
 Awarded the Nash-Healey
 Hardtop Sports Car as
 First Prize in Foreign Car
 Custom Body Class—1953.

Here is without doubt the smartest sports car in the world today . . . the 1953 Nash-Healey.

Here is the only car that combines the automotive genius of three nations—the incomparable coachwork of Italy's Pinin Farina . . . the exclusive "Trailing Link Front Suspension" of England's Donald Healey . . . and the smooth power of America's famous Nash Ambassador "Le Mans" Dual Jetfire engine.

In international race competition it has amassed the greatest winning record of any American car—in the world's greatest test, the 24-hour "Grand Prix d'Endurance", at Le Mans, France.

Now the new 1953 Nash-Healey is here . . . for those who want the finest, most beautiful car that money can buy. Service by Nash dealers everywhere. Available now for immediate delivery!
