

It's a... Porsche!

with a DEVIN fiberglass body

How would you like to own the car in the photo . . . or one almost identical to it? The chassis in this case is a Porsche (and it is a thousand-pound bomb!) but there are lots of light car chassis which will serve as well. If you have been thinking about building a special for street or competition using your own ideas and design concepts but have been scared off by the high cost of body work, consider the Devin fiberglass body. Light in weight, superbly finished, beautiful in execution, truly the outstanding body available today. 27 sizes . . . all at the same low price, $295, many available extras such as headrests, cockpit liner (seats) molded in if specified, molded-in headlight receptacles (just plug in sealed beam units), etc. Trimming, crating and Federal Excise Tax are included in the price, incidentally. By making a wide range of sizes to fit chassis from 78" to 106" wheelbase and 40" to 56" tread Devin eliminates most of the work you have to do. Investigate the Devin body today.

NOTE: We have been offering a brochure for $1.00 and refunding the dollar when a body was ordered but a lot of people got the idea that we are selling the brochure . . . this is not the case. The charge was put on to eliminate the free literature collectors. Let's put it this way: If you are seriously interested, send $1.00 deposit on a body and we'll send you the brochure free. Or, see your nearest Devin Dealer . . . he can help you with some of the decisions you'll have to make.
