COVER

The sound and fury! The thundering exhaust note of Don Garlits' nitro-fed Chrysler and the pavement-rattling after effects take care of the details in the sound department. The fury comes when this tire melting winged missile on wheels ghosts through the timing lights at nearly 200 mph and sprints the 1320 feet faster than the champions can run the 100-yard dash. HRM's Eric Rickman used a long lens and imagination for the color scene.
