For the first time in automotive history, a car has been fashioned with such unexpected elegance and such unique beauty that it has been honored with a special award from Tiffany & Co. The car is Mustang. The award is the Tiffany Gold Medal for Excellence in American Design.

Besides its unexpected import look, Mustang has an unexpected price—just $2368* f.o.b. Detroit. And this price includes some dazzling extras, such as deep foam bucket seats . . . a smart color-keyed all-vinyl interior . . . wall-to-wall carpeting that makes you want to slip your shoes off and wiggle your toes . . . a richly padded instrument panel and full wheel covers. The Mustang also includes many little extras women look for—like a light in the glove compartment, 2 automatic courtesy lights, front arm rests, and cigarette lighter. Also standard is a 170-cu. in. Six, curved side glass, and a sports steering wheel. All these luxury features, along with Mustang's surprisingly spacious trunk, and room for four are included in Mustang's unexpected price—just $2368* f.o.b. Detroit.

*Suggested retail price. Destination charges from Detroit, options, state and local taxes and fees, if any, are extra. Whitewalls are $33.90 extra.
