The Private World of Thunderbird

A PRODUCT OF

MOTOR COMPANY

There are three roads to Thunderbird enchantment for '65. Hardtop, Landau, and this—the convertible. Top-down travel has never been so effortless as in America's personal car...flip a switch and the automatic top stows itself completely beneath the long, lean lines of Thunderbird's rear deck. And top-down convenience is just the beginning of Thunderbird luxury for '65. Sequential Taillight Turn Signals clearly point the direction you want to go—the way others will follow. And they're standard, as are power disc brakes on the front wheels, power steering, Cruise-O-Matic Drive, 390 cu. in. Thunderbird Special V-8, radio, heater, Swing-A-Way steering wheel, retractable seat belts, automatic parking brake release. Discover Thunderbird's unique kind of action for yourself—here is motion so solid, smooth and sure that it approaches the feeling of flight itself. Your Ford dealer invites you to explore the Private World of Thunderbird, now.
