

World's Land Speed Record Holder Art Arfons, set the world record of 536.71 mph on Bonneville Salt Flats.

Art Arfons, fastest man on earth,
owns the Sunbeam Tiger:
world's fastest sports car for $3499*

Britain contributed the racing chassis. America provided the mighty Ford V-8 power plant. The men in England who build the famed Sunbeam sports cars put chassis and engine together to create the hottest car to hit 1965. Test the Tiger's cat-quick reflexes at your Sunbeam dealer. Touch the throttle and get the ride of your life.
