

FIRST FIREBIRD TRANS AM - 1969 ---- Introduced in the Spring of 1969 as the "Ultimate Performance Ponycar of the day," the Trans Am has evolved into the top domestic sports car in America today.

The first Trans Am was an impressive handling car with staggered shocks and one-inch anti-roll bar in the front, and was powered by the 400 cubic inch 335 horsepower Ram Air engine.

#

FOR RELEASE: Immediately

PUBLIC RELATIONS DEPARTMENT
PONTIAC MOTOR DIVISION
ONE PONTIAC PLAZA
PONTIAC, MICHIGAN 48053
(313) 857-1570

032878